

Composite Critique

For this Critique, students will present their work to the class. While presenting students will address the following information.

- What is your product?
- Who is the Target Market for your product?
- What is your products main selling point?
- How does your advertisement get the Target Market to purchase the product?
- Where are your 5 Photos?

25 Points possible