

Get started on the surreal project (Story board)

- Begin your new project by reading the surreal project requirements, if you haven't done that yet go back and read them, then read the rest of this assignment.
- To begin your project, get blank piece of paper on the back write the following-
 - Your name
 - Your product
 - Main selling point (the reason someone should buy your project)
 - Target market (the people you want to buy your product)
- On the other side of the paper draw out a storyboard for your Project- Remember your project must have use surreal imagery. Don't know what surreal means? Google it. Here are the parts you need to include on your storyboard
 - Headline
 - Surreal image or images
 - Background image
 - Product photo
 - logo